

Transportation Alert!

Parents/Guardian of:

Clarkstown District Students

The Clarkstown Central School District has decided due to budgetary cuts that they will not provide Albertus Magnus High School with transportation on the dates listed below. It will be the responsibility of the parents to transport their child to school. In the event that the student cannot be transported, please notify the attendance office at 623-8842 (ext. 218), and send a parental note including an explanation. Please note that this is a CCSD decision. If you should have any questions or concerns, you should contact the Transportation Department directly at 639-6380.

We apologize for any inconvenience that this may cause.

Days affected by these budgetary cuts are:

September 9, 2010

December 10, 2010

May 27, 2011
